

4 Days Tata – Budapest cycling tour (Tour Identifier: CYTB42)

Self guided tour, starts at Tata and ends in Budapest.

Brief Program

Day 1: Arrival Tata

Tata, the town of waters situated on Lake Tata with lovely atmosphere. Discover the town around the lakes. Overnight in Tata with wellness center. (D)

Day 2:Tata - Esztergom (52 km)

Today the route goes through forested landscape with an ascent to cover but after that it is a straight run to Esztergom. You will need to gather your strength for this section. There are places where some hard pedaling is required, but the cycling is pleasant and the air on the hilly stretches refreshing, as you pass through forests and open woodland along minor roads with little traffic. Driving into the city center you can enjoy the beautiful scenery of Esztergom environment, the river Danube and the nearby hill. You can admire the most monumental construction of Hungarian Classicism, the largest Basilica in Hungary, dating from 1822, which incorporates an earlier, renaissance church from the 16th century. Overnight in Esztergom. (B, D)

Day 3: Danube Bend, Esztergom - Visegrád (30 km)

Cycling along the Danube river valley gets you to the small town of Visegrád situated at the exit of a loop in the Danube in the Danube Bend. This historical town is a popular destination for excursions because of ruins of the royal palace and citadel and the scenery view of Danube Bend. You can take a trip up to the “Castle in the clouds” and enjoy the amazing panorama which unfolds your eyes. Overnight in Visegrád Hotel with wellness center. (B, D)

Day 4: Danube Bend, Visegrád - Szentendre - Budapest (45 km)

Cross the Danube by ferry to Nagymaros. On the other side you will cycle along the Danube Bank to the one-thousand-year-old Episcopal seat – city Vác. After crossing the Danube to the Szentendre Island, Continue on to the town of Szentendre with its many churches, galleries and arts. From Szentendre you can travel back to Budapest by HÉV (suburban train). (B)
